the BRIDGE TO THE Future

MANHATTANVILLE. College. Education. Small Classes. The Portfolio. Outstanding professors. Beautiful and Historic Setting. Diversity. Leadership Opportunities. Community Involvement. New York City. A Bridge.

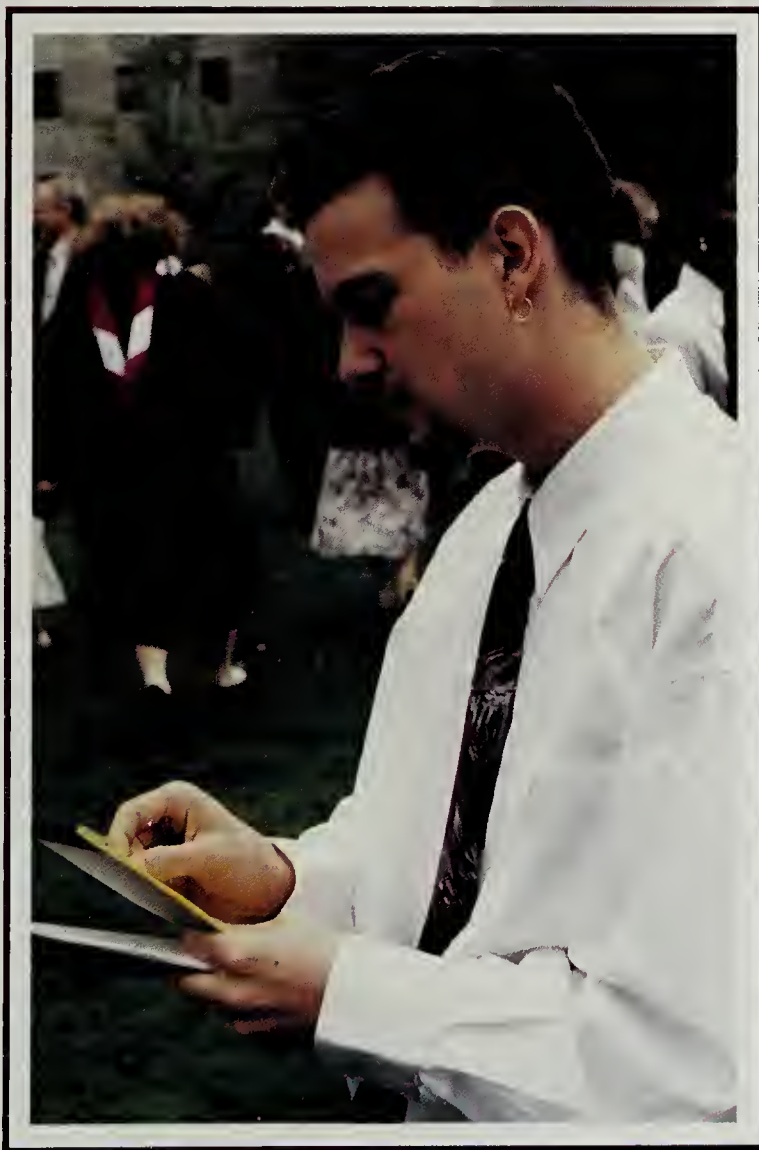

All these terms are descriptive of this place we call home for four years. Manhattanville College is where we come to develop and grow, prepare for the real world, and most importantly, find ourselves. It's the bridge to the future that we all must cross.

We all come from different parts of the United States and the world, from different races, different economic backgrounds... many of us come here feeling scared and alone. But as the years go by, we quickly realize that the Manhattanville community is a family.

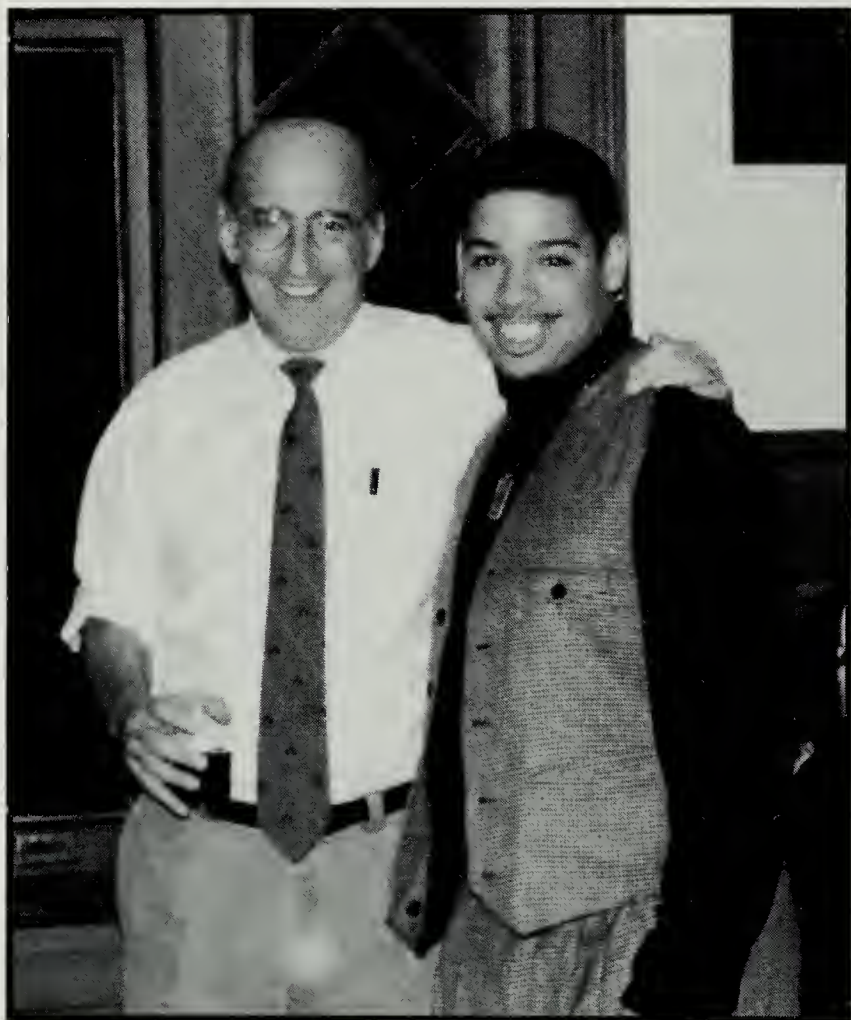

DAVID JAKUBIAK contemplates crossing the bridge.

And it is only together as this family (and not without the support of the faculty, our own families, and our friends) that we can cross the bridge.

From the freshmen who stepped on the bridge this year for the first time, to the seniors who are ready to be a part of the world on the other side, we are all here because we know that Manhattanville has proven itself time and time again to be a sturdy and fortified bridge that will take us, as it has done for students for 155 years, to a successful and well-rounded future.

a MESSAGE FROM THE President to the seniors

TO THE GRADUATING CLASS OF 1997:

It is with great pride but mixed emotions that I bid farewell to the class of 1997.

This has been an eventful year for all of us. From New York Yankees' triumph in the World Series after an 18- year hiatus, to the re-election of a Democratic President for the first time since Franklin Roosevelt, to the discovery of life on Mars, we have been witness to many momentous happenings. Now, add your graduation from Manhattanville to that list of illustrious events.

Today's global economy is probably the most competitive ever. You will likely find yourself challenged in ways that you never before imagined as the latest technologies and the 21 st century scientific advances demand your intellectual diligence and flexibility. Some of you will not only have numerous jobs, but multiple careers. You may even become experts in subjects not currently part of any college curriculum.

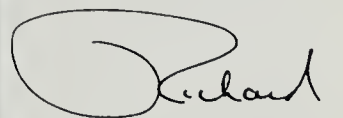

It all sounds a little frightening, I know. But I have no doubt that as a result of your four years at Manhattanville you not only will be able to meet these challenges, but excel in ways that might surprise yourself. I know, in fact, that you will achieve great success "out there" because you received a terrific education based on Manhattanville's four core values: academic excellence and a deep respect for intellectual values; the development of the whole person-- mind, body, and spirit-- in an atmosphere of responsible freedom; building a caring, compassionate, nurturing community, founded on mutual respect and accountability for individual actions; and a special commitment to social awareness and moral obligation to educate our students about the role they can play in improving their community and the world around them. Because of your hard work and dedication to these values, you have achieved many academic accomplishments that will prepare you well for opportunities and challenges ahead.

A genuine commitment to these core values has also allowed many of you to play active roles in the "real world" via outstanding participation in Manhattanville community service projects. Through activities such as the "Midnight Run," the Lord's Pantry and St. Vincent's Hospital, you have already learned valuable lessons about how one individual can dramatically and positively affect the lives of so many others. I am confident that these are lessons you will not soon forget.

I like to think of graduation as the crossing of a great bridge out of one's life into another. Years from now when you are looking over this copy of the Tower, please remember that this bridge is always there awaiting your return. I encourage you to continue to think of this place as your second home. Take a graduate course, attend an Arts Alive performance, start or join an alumni club, stay involved with Manhattanville. And, when you do return, remember that my door is always open.

I wish you the best of luck. Keep in touch, call and come back soon, because I will be missing you. Thanks for making such a difference in my life.

the BRIDGE BETWEEN Classes AND sanity

9:30 ALREADY? I JUST WENT TO BED TWO HOURS AGO! How do we do it? Take fifteen... sixteen.. twenty credits per semester, have a job, an internship, play a sport, be a member of - how many clubs did you say? And then just when we can actually make it home to relax, we have midterms. Dinner? What's dinner? Nineteen meals per week and fourteen left at dinner on Sunday. Forget a social life when we practically have to schedule a time to go to the bathroom!

If this were really all there was to college, none of us would be here. But there is a lot that keeps us from mental breakdowns and burnout. Hanging out with friends at the pub on Friday night, those three hour brunches on Saturdays, the Entente and the Formal... all these things that happen at Manhattanville that bridge the gap between academic stress and sanity.

And so despite the fact that the weekly campus-wide average of hours slept per week is twelve (!), we love college life and all that comes with it.

THE FIRST THING ONE LEARNS IS THAT MANHATTANVILLE COLLEGE DOES NOT HAVE DORMS. Students live in residence halls. What a residence hall exactly is, is something I have never figured out after four years, and I don't suppose anyone else has either. As a resident student, and not an incoming freshman, the choice of where to live come room lottery time is often a difficult and painful process. At first, you are ecstatic with the low number, believing that this will guarantee you the room of your choice. But then the agonizing debate begins - which hall? Dammann at first seems like the most logical choice. You get your own bathroom and the thought of a living room with real furniture convinces you and five of your closest friends that this is the best choice. Then the fight begins over who is going to have to live in those coffin rooms. Your next choice is Founders, where you still have your own bathroom and you have your own room. But Founders is party central and not an atmosphere that is conducive to studying, because something is always going on in Founders. Out of sheer desperation, you even contemplate living in Spellman again, but this idea is quickly wiped out of your mind, because the idea of paying $ 1000 a year to live alone in a big room and still have community bathrooms is beyond tolerable. On the day of room lottery, you close your eyes and point - its the safest way.

A QUAD DAY IS TRULY A MANHATTANVILLE EXPERIENCE. The day dawns bright and sunny, with perhaps a few clouds dancing in the sky. The temperature is warm, not too hot or too breezy, but just right. At first, there are only a few scattered blankets and two random guys tossing around a football. After lunch though, the Quad becomes a mecca for the sun-worshippers and those interested in some football or soccer. Afternoon classes become a distant thought as the sounds of portable radios and laughter ring out. One of your friends may try to remind you of that 2:30 class, and you say that you'll go a few minutes late. But as the sun warms your face and the talk revolves around nothing but suntan lotion and music choices, the idea of class fades from your mind. You lay back, enjoying the Quad. The sun is always so bright on the Quad. From your vantage point on your blanket, you look behind you and see the statue of Jesus and in front of you, looming like something out of a Shakespearean play, is the Castle. On a perfect Quad Day, the Castle glows. It becomes perfectly framed in the giant expanse of blue sky, and when the sun hits it just right, it glows. A Quad Day is truly a Manhattanville experience.

- "Why did I do that last shot?"
- "Why didn't I get up for class?"
- "Why didn't I study?"
- "Why did I get that haircut at the Galleria?"
- "Why did I have the curried goat for dinner at Flik last night?"
- "Why didn't I do my homework?"
- "Why did I drink so much last night?"

Who remembers how they used to serve cold cuts in Flik? Remember the Pub before it was the Pub? OK one more. The third floor of Spellman. We have seen the birth of the magic, the rebirth of the Touchstone, the fulfillment of a complete women's soccer team. Oh, who remembers Philly Cheesesteak night in the Cafe? Imagine if I told you four years ago that we would have a party in the President's Cottage. I didn't even know what the cottage was. It was like a fortress right? These are the things which easily come to mind when thinking about The Pub.

Remember Freshman year and Sophomore year when there was no such thing and we were left to fend for ourselves? The opening of The Pub in the Fall 1995 was a big deal for Manhattanville. Finally there was a place to go, on campus where you could kick back, relax, dance the night away, meet up with friends and let off some steam after a full week.

The Pub has definitely been an integral part of the things that have made our campus into a community. We all used to complain that there was nothing to do, then The Pub came along.

ORIENTATION FOR THOSE OF THE CLASS OF 2000 WILL BE REMEMBERED BY ALL THOSE INVOLVED. The Orientation Advisors definitely had their work cut out for them, as it was their privilege to welcome the class of 2,000, the largest class in over 25 years of Manhattanville history.

Beginning their work even before the 1995-1996 school year ended, the Orientation Advisors (commonly referred to as OA's) opted to use the theme of "Blast off 2,000," as this year's incoming class would be the first to graduate in the next century. For the first time, the OA's were responsible for writing, producing, and starring in a college issues play, entitled "As M'Ville Turns."

They all worked hard, far exceeding all expectations of the Manhattanville community, the Orientation Advisors helped the new Freshman Class and their parents get acclimated to the Manhattanville community. There were both fun and frightening moments (the preparation for a potential hurricane, for example) for the OA's as they united to warmly welcome new students and their families to the Manhattanville community.

The job of a resident assistant is undoubtedly one of the most challenging and demanding jobs at Manhattanville. Resident assistants have to be no less than 100% dedicated as the job can put a lot of strain on time, energy and emotion.

Amongst all its challenges, the role of the resident assistant is a rewarding one. The experiences one can have as a resident assistant are beyond compare. A resident assistant has to be a friend, role model, counselor, teacher and crisis handler all rolled into one. Somewhere in there the resident assistant has to be a student as well.

Most of all, resident assistants know that the contributions they make to other people's lives are what make them important. The influence one can have on someone else's life is immeasurable.

ON OCTOBER 28, 1996, car loads of people arrived Manhattanville for the annual Family Day events. Like other years, in 1996 there was a full day of activities planned.

The weather was not fantastic but no one was discouraged from attending. Between the tailgate lunch, the athletic games, the President's reception, the honors brunch and the mini-lectures, there was never a dull moment that day. Some people even opted to go off campus and visit the sights of Westchester County as well.

The rain in the evening forced the bonfire to be canceled but there was still more fun to be had. The dinner dance was excellent and the pub event was enjoyed by all.

The object of Family Day is to bring our loved ones here so that they can see what our lives are like away from home. This year's Family Day fulfilled its purpose and highly enjoyable. A great success!

IT WAS A DARK AND STORMY NIGHT. Who at Manhattanville will ever forget what started out to be an average Saturday that ended in darkness for three days?

What was described as noreaster on the news felt like a veritable hurricane to the Manhattanville community. The power went out at around 2:00 p.m. on Saturday afternoon, leaving us without computers, t.v.s, lights, heat, hot and cold water, etc. for three days. Of course, we all knew the power would be on at any minute... and then when minutes turned to hours, and it got dark (really dark, especially in Dammann and Spellman), we rushed to the security desk for free flashlights.

So did Manhattanville sleep in the dark? Despite the howling wind and rain and pitch black, Manhattanville students managed to keep themselves entertained despite the lack of modern electronic technology. Playing hide seek in the dark, card games to candlelight, and lip sincing to that one battery powered stereo, were just a few things we did to keep us from getting bored until the lights came back on.

Then of course, there were those lucky few in Founders who had full power throughout the whole affair. All we would like to let you know is this: we know which switch in the circuit breaker controls the power to your room... don't be surprised if your power suddenly goes out!

IT ALWAYS SEEMS TO TAKE PLACE WHEN THERE ARE LITTLE TO NO LEAVES ON THE TREES. One is in the late fall, one is in the early spring. Of course, this is also when the world is most alive. The birds are all joined together, the ladybugs come in swarms, the ground is either painted like a discarded pallet with tossed leaves or blooming daffodils. The days are warm. The evenings are crisp-- the world has more flavors than a spice rack in a five star restaurant. So, it is appropriate that this is when we hold the entente.

The entente, not en-ten-tea, is when we Manhattanville students have the chance to show our flavors and the faculty shows their flavors and the admin, man, even they have flavor. Notice a theme here? Maybe entente should be the new slang term for flavor. You know we all have entente (man). Yeah, just like the late fall and early spring show us the world's flavors-- the entente-- its the Manhattanville buffet. And its grabbin' stars.

HALLOWEEN IN THE PAST HAS BEEN LEFT UP TO DORM PARTIES for the feature attraction. But this year proved different with the successful Haunted House and trick-or-treating in campus offices.

In the morning it was just the President's Cottage and by the time the sun fell it was a mystifying Haunted House. The Haunted House was jam-packed with crayons, silver beings, flashbacks from the 70's, cow girls, drag queens, fairies, pirates and a dining room table for two. People were shaking from the alien room while others tremored from the blood and gore of other rooms. The decorations were not the only scary aspects of the evening because watching some students dance would make anyone cry. The dance floor was filled to the brim, but it did not stop anyone from bumping and grinding in their awkward costumes. Many of us let loose behind the mask of our costumes; others strutted their stuff for the judges who were keeping a watchful eye for that "best costume."

"Eat, drink and be merry" seemed to be the hidden theme because people were not shy when it came to the food table and the bar. The long trek across campus proved to be worth it.

Formal night is one when the population of Manhattanville truly shines as a whole. The majority of the people emerge in shimmering dresses and dashing suits in order to dance the night away and socialize in a setting distinctly its own.

Most formals are unforgettable as they are nights unlike any other found on our campus. Situated at the end of each semester, the formals are an extraordinary way to celebrate the semester as well as to fully celebrate ourselves.

I WOULD LIKE TO TAKE THIS MOMENT to express my gratitude and appreciation in becoming Manhattanville's Freshman Class President. This is a position of high visibility and extreme pressure, but a position that I felt I would be ready to take. Since my arrival at Manhattanville, I have taken advantage of many opportunities, but none of them as important as this one. Right from the start of the year, in orientation, I have met and interacted with many students of this large diverse class. In my time here I have met many people and have been the link between student government, campus life, and of course the freshman class of 2000. Also in this time, I have matured as a leader and as someone whom people can talk to. This has been a true learning experience for me. Overall my goal for the year now, as they were originally, is to get this energetic and enthusiastic class unified and involved, especially when it comes down to school spirit. Finally, I would like to give a great deal of thanks to all those who have supported me. I truly hope to make this a "blast off" year for the class of 2000.

IF WHEN I HAD GRADUATED FROM HIGH SCHOOL, someone had told me how fast these first two years of college were going to go by, I would not have believed them. Our memories of last year's orientation and all that went along with it are still fresh but this year, as sophomores, we are more confident of our surroundings. During our freshman year we discovered that here, we can learn not only through our classes, but through each other. This year, we can take all of that and use it to turn our time into something richer, something that will always stay with us. We can feel that mounting excitement here on campus and hopefully can use it to improve both ourselves, and our school. Here's to past, present and future, and to hope that we, Manhattanville College's last class of the twentieth century, will continue to grow and gain the knowledge that will enable us to succeed and fulfill all of our dreams in the coming millennium.

OUR ORIENTATION WAS A WEEK LONG. And looking back, it's hard to believe that two full years have flown by since and we are now Juniors. A lot has changed since that first year, both within our class itself, and with Manhattanville. This year, as Juniors, we finally set that major in stone... hopefully... and are preparing ourselves for internships, jobs, and writing that thesis next year. So what makes our class so special? We have a large concentration of athletes and student leaders in our class, who make Manhattanville what it is. Our class, despite being spread between Founders and Dammann (does anyone still live in Spellman?) has a special bond that has been a driving force since our Freshman year. And like the Seniors, our class can fully appreciate things like the ATM, the new computers, and Campus Link because we remember what it was like without them. But today, we enjoy our Junior year - our "bridge" to senior year.

SEEMS LIKE YESTERDAY I WAS MEETING EVERYONE for the first time in Spellman. Now, almost four years later, we prepare to say our good-bye's. As we begin to build a new bridge in our lives, we must not forget the four years that laid the foundation for us to move on.

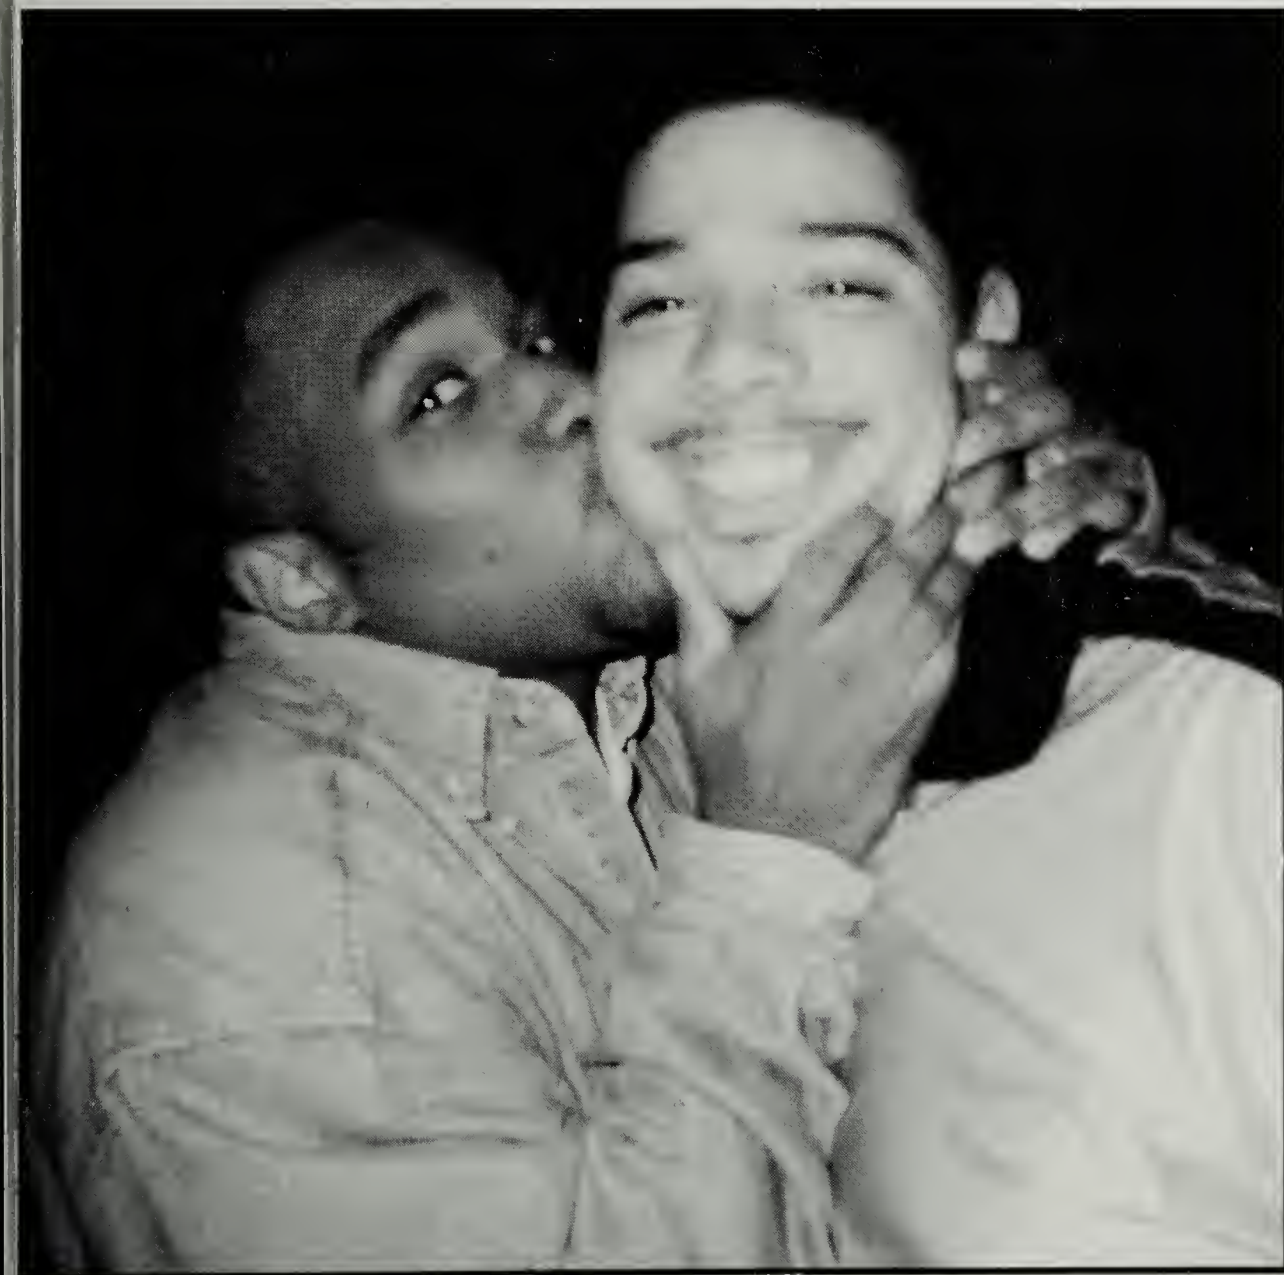

Our time at Manhattanville has been both joyful and sometimes difficult, but nonetheless we have loved, laughed and cried through our Manhattanville experience.

The tears that I'm sure will streak my face on May 17, 1997, will remind me of the Spellman experience. Waking up at 4:00 a.m. for those ever so wonderful fire alarms. Going to sleep at 5:00 a.m. after a long bio study group. They will remind me of Domino's and Chinese Food, of spades and water balloon fights, or just sitting around and talking about absolutely nothing. Those tears will bring back memories of our old cafe and cafeteria, as well as, the joy of getting into Founders. They will also remind me of the wonderful people that I have met here, so rich in character and poor in selfishness. My memories of Manhattanville will be both depressing and exciting. It will be difficult for me to get up in the morning and not have to walk across the quad for class. It will be even more difficult to not enter the cafeteria and hear about all the days drama. Yet will be exciting because Manhattanville has prepared me to move on in the next phase of my life. I will be able to contribute to my society and know that it is because of my experiences at Manhattanville that I am able to do so. For four years Manhattanville offered us a home and a sanctuary of love and support. Here we were able to learn how to laugh and cry, to hurt and to get over that hurt. We have learned that character and respect for yourself and others is what makes you a well rounded individual, and in the process been offered a productive and enlightening education.

For all of the bridges I have been able to cross, and all of the bridges I will be able to cross in my future, I thank you Class of 97. Much love and support in your future endeavors,

OCTOBER TWENTY NINTH, MARKED A BEGINNING TO AN END, it was exactly two hundred nights until our graduation day. It was a night I think we will all remember. After we got over the initial shock that graduation was quickly creeping up on us, we put on our dancing shoes and headed for the cottage to celebrate.

We arrived at the cottage and enjoyed our first round on the President, in our new souvenir mugs. It was nice to take a break from our hectic schedules and thesis papers. Many of us caught up on gossip while others reminisced about old times. And everyone and anyone was dancing. This special moment was marked constant cameras flashing and smiling faces.

It was sad to see the evening come to a finish.
Before departing we captured this moment by gathering on the cottage stairs and prepared to cross the bridge to one hundred nights.

You haven't changed a bit.

Well, maybe just a little...

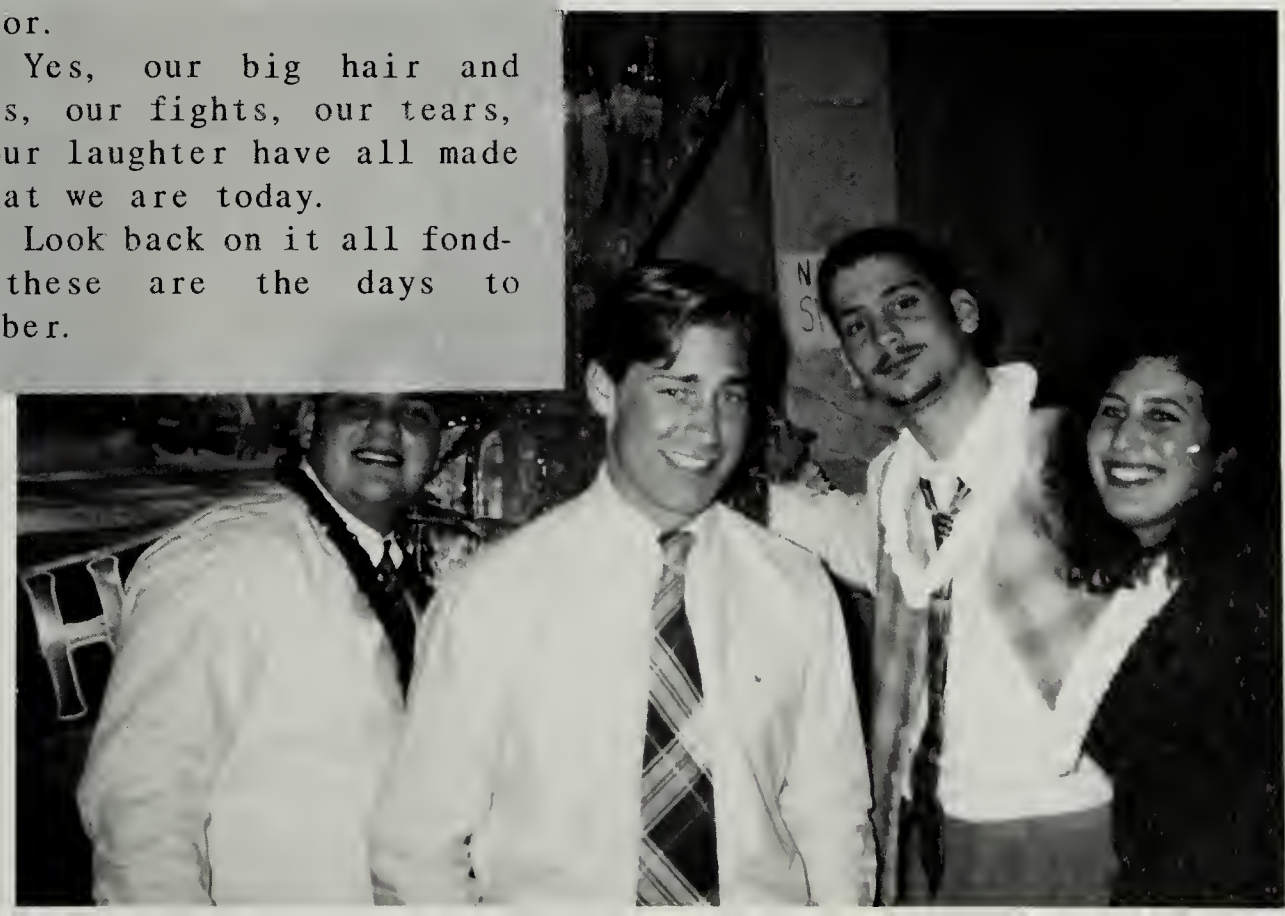

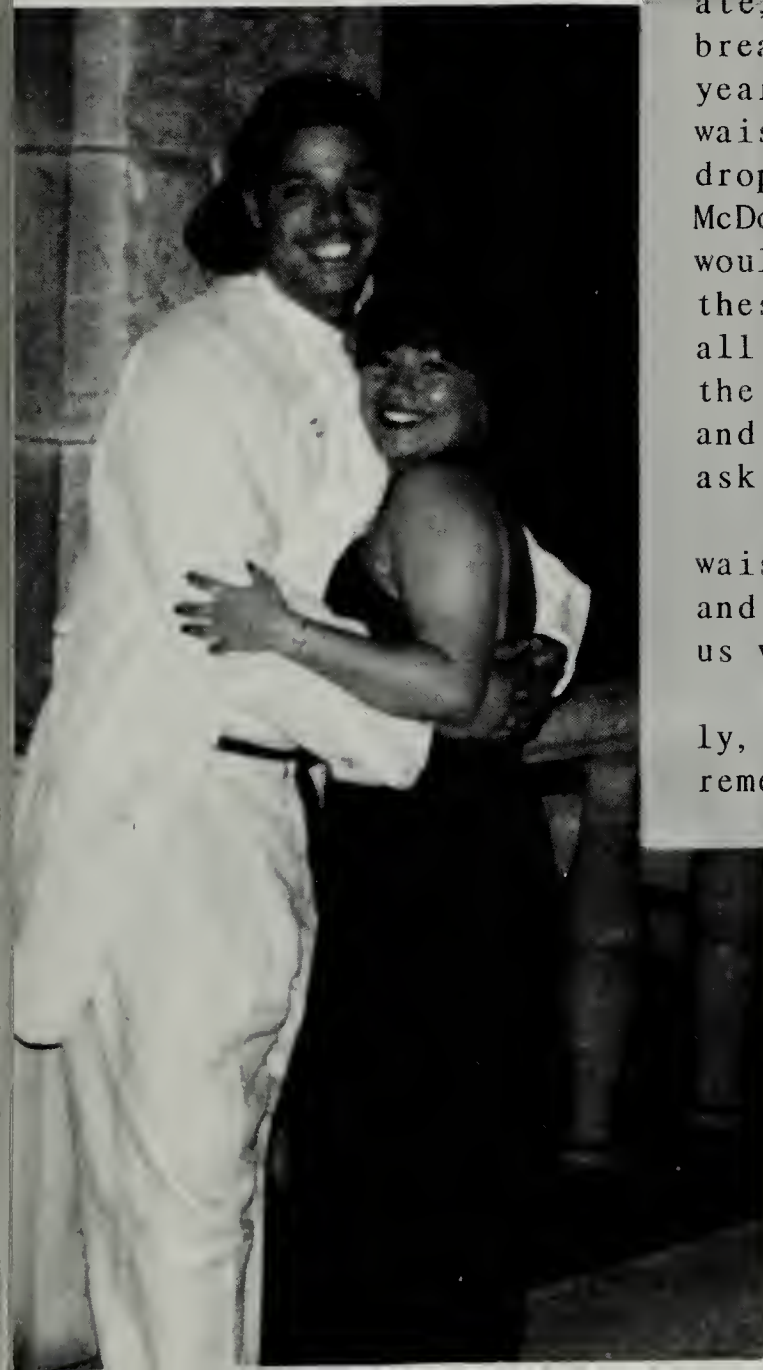

"Over the past four years we've watched each other grow and found some of the best friends we'll ever know."

When we all arrived at Manhattanville, most of us didn't believe that the time until graduation would fly by in a flash. On our first days of check-in, orientation and classes, senior year seemed a lifetime away.

But, here we are. We've laughed, cried, struggled, ate, drank, worked, and breathed together through four years of twice as many hairdos, waist sizes, campus jobs, add / drop slips, Flik meals, and McDonald's runs. While we would not want to dredge up all these experiences, they have all compiled together to form the most precious friendships and memories that anyone could ask for.

Yes, our big hair and waists, our fights, our tears, and our laughter have all made us what we are today.

Look back on it all fondly, these are the days to remember.

understanding

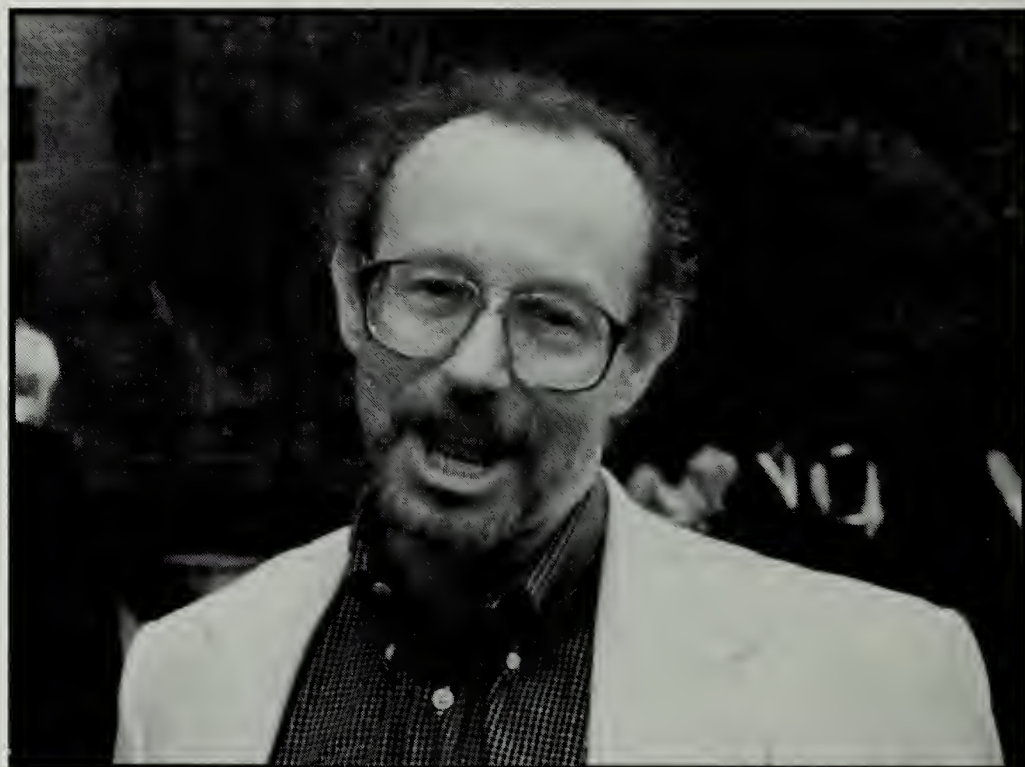

THEY'RE HERE TO HELP US EXPAND OUR MINDS. The Manhattanville faculty and staff are dedicated to one thing: enriching our minds and helping us to learn all that we will need to make it in the real world. But we all know what makes our faculty so special is their caring and attention to each of us. After all, how many colleges actually have professors who know you by name, notice if you were or weren't in class, and take time to know and befriend their students outside the classroom. They make the educational experience rewarding, fulfilling, and often fun for Manhattanville students.

In addition to the wealth of knowledge that we acquire from our professors, we gain an understanding of the world around us that will help us cross the bridge to being well-educated individuals.

Aside from the professors, Manhattanville is rich in its staff members, who make life here just a little bit better for all. The campus offices, from Career Services to Academic Advising to Residence Life, just to name a few, all have one goal, and that is to make life at Manhattanville the best that it can possibly be so we can cross our bridges without too many hurdles.

the BRIDGE

BETWEEN

Saying AND

doing

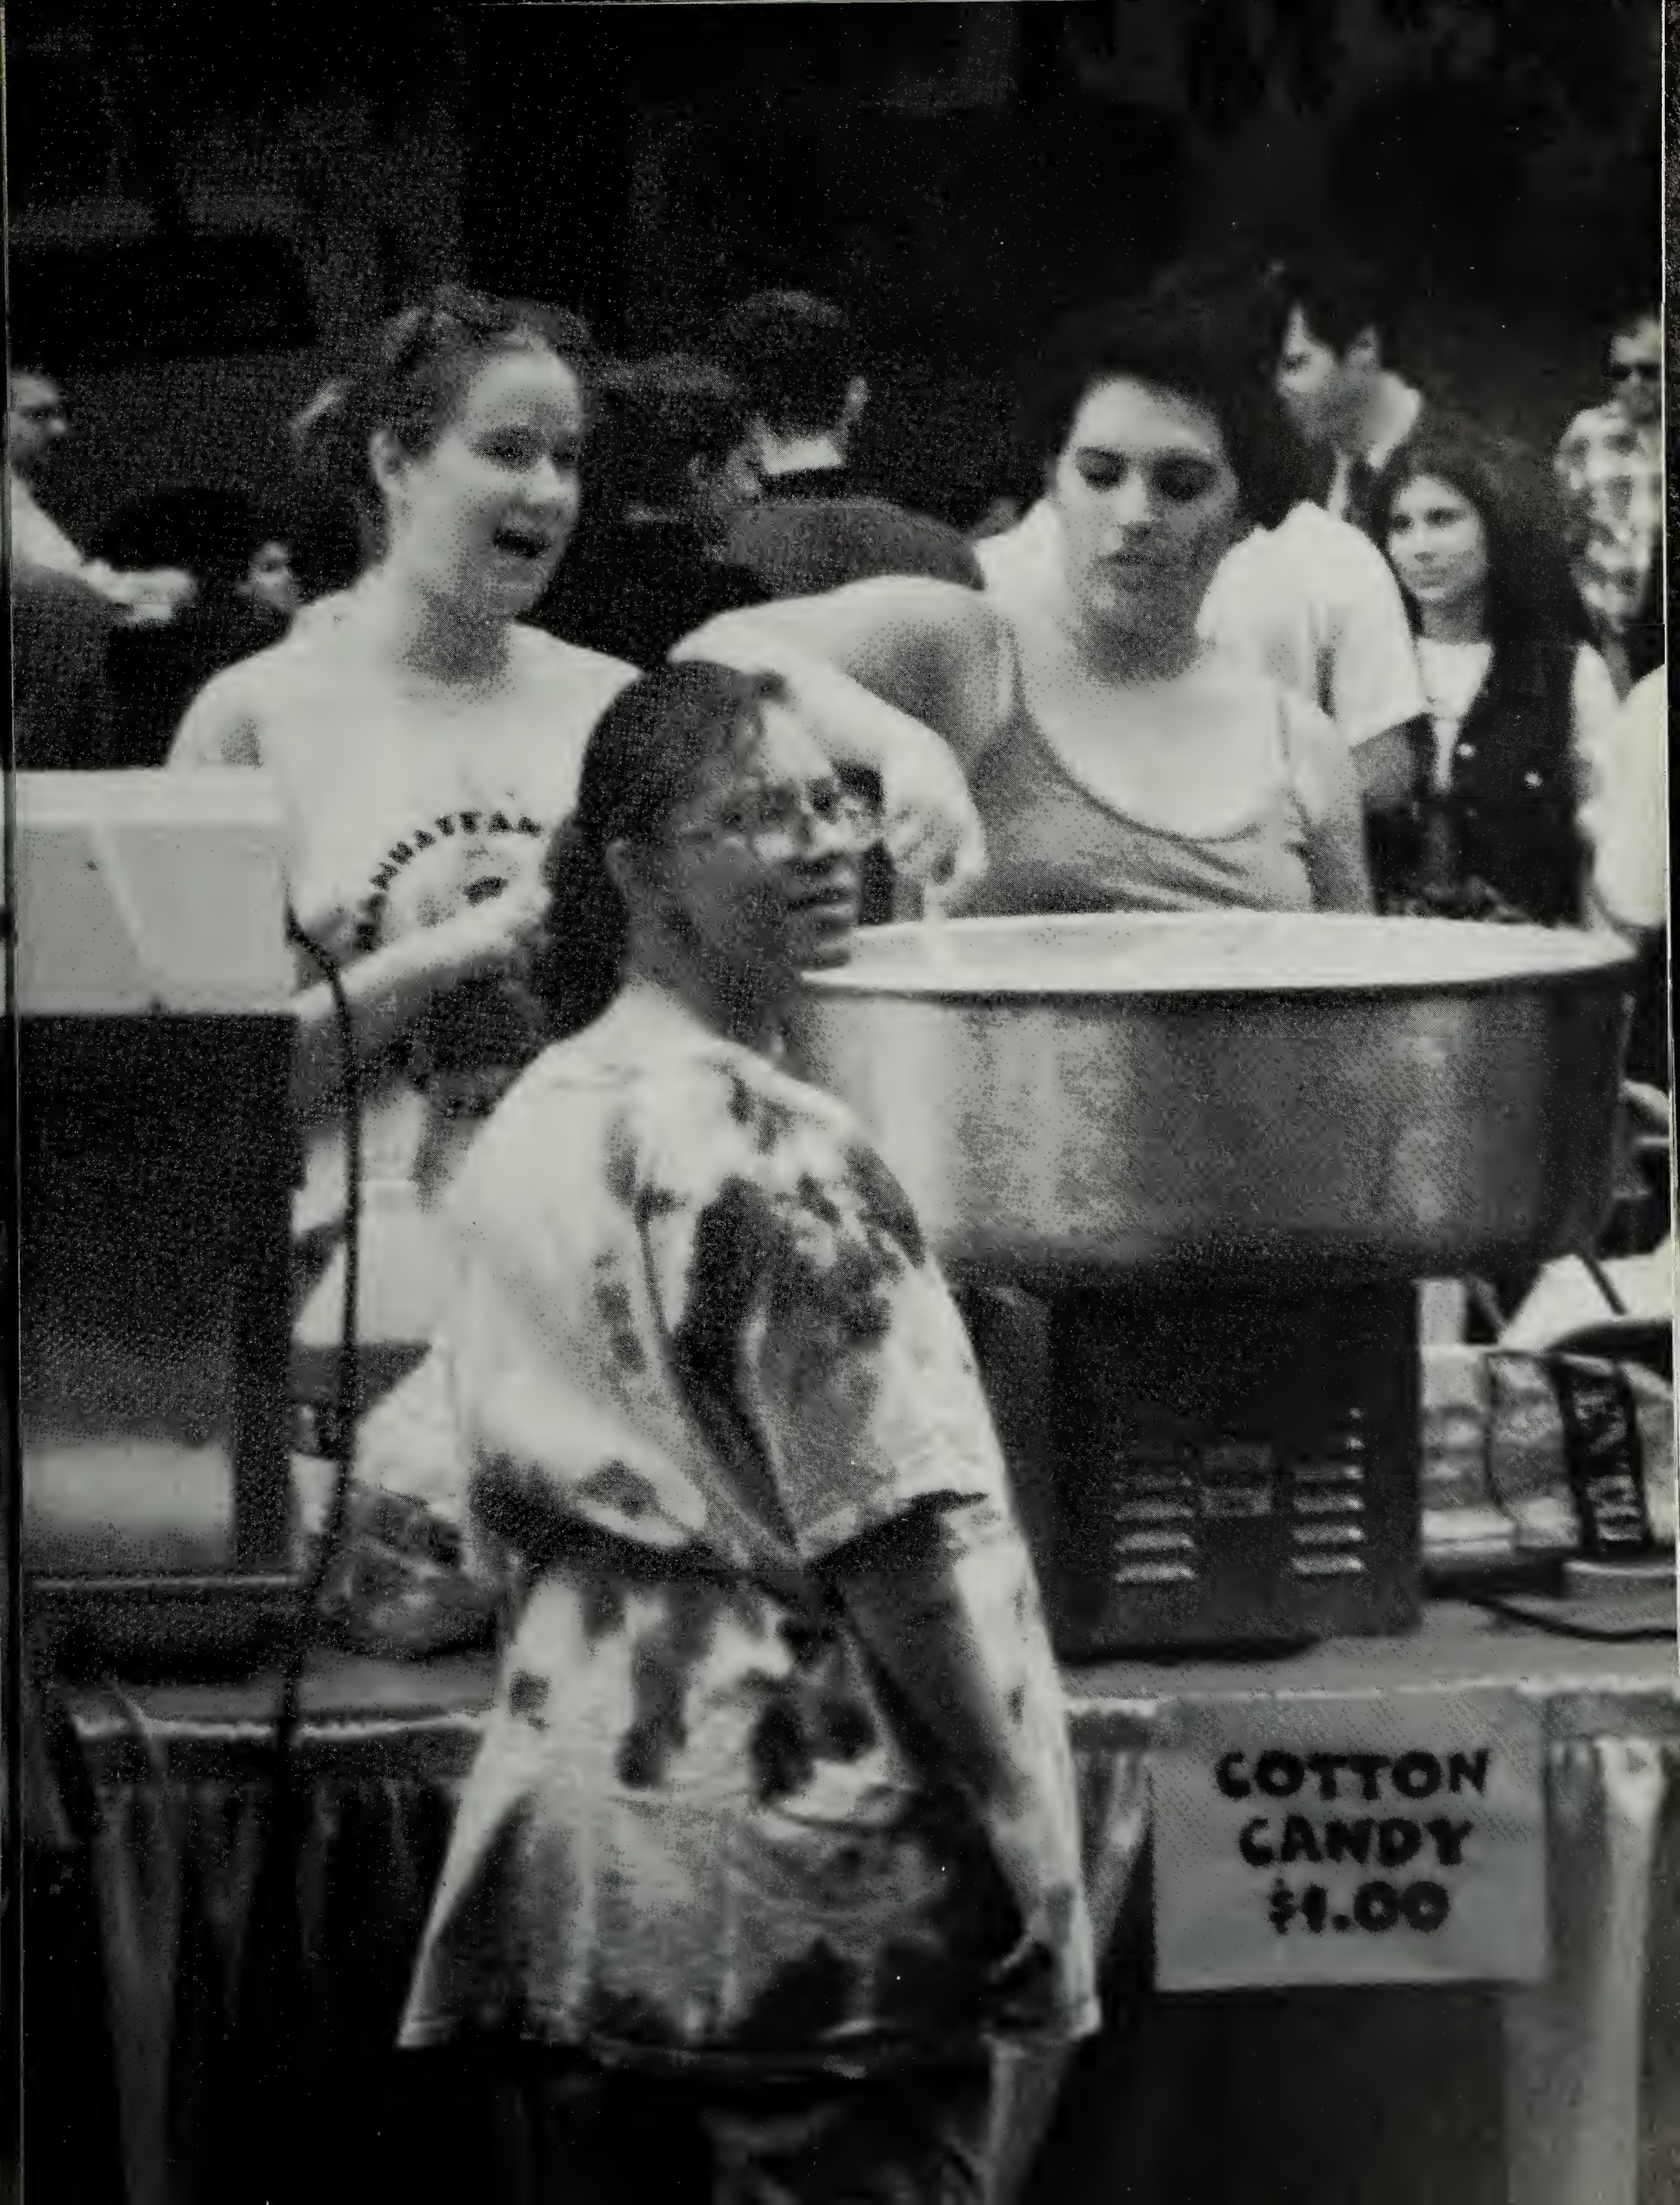

THEY MAKE A DIFFERENCE IN OUR DAILY LIVES. Let's face it . Without all the clubs on campus, we wouldn't have things like Fantasia or Quad Jam, the Formals or Guest Lecturers. Manhattanville has numerous clubs, all of which are run by the students for the students. They represent people's beliefs and interests.

The clubs at Manhattanville all have different aims and goals. Some, like the Rugby Club, are for athletic expression, whereas clubs like Student Government are here to voice student concerns. Members of Touchstone and Tower are interested in Publications and journalism, and Student Programming Board wants to make sure that there are fun activities for everyone on campus.

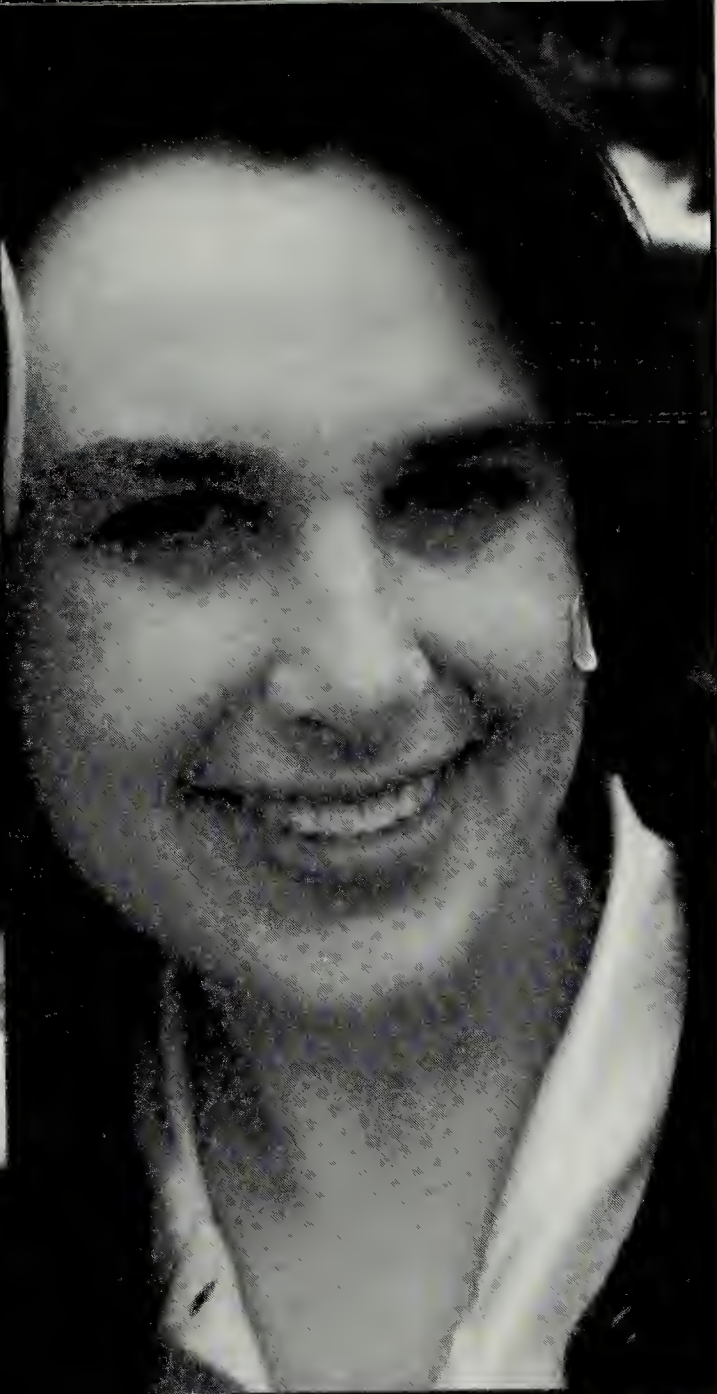

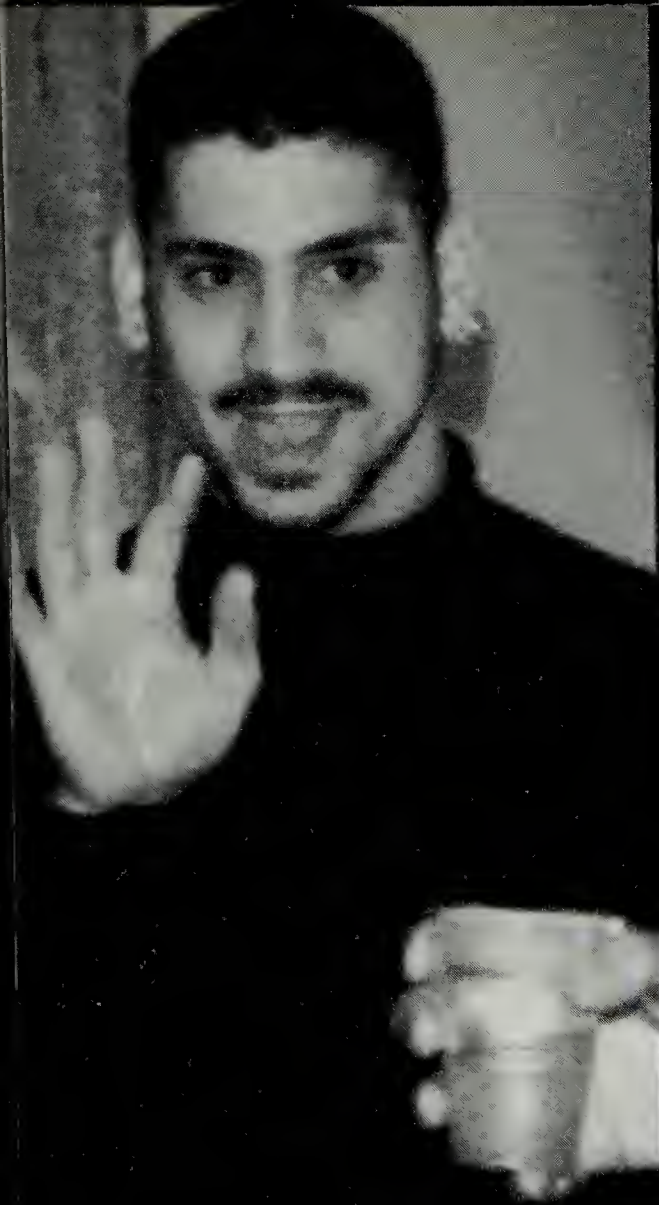

But the one thing that makes the clubs at Manhattanville so successful is the spirit and enthusiasm of the student leaders and club members. It is these motivated students who make things at Manhattanville happen.

women's soccer

This year's Lady Valiants played exceptionally well, posting one of their most impressive records to date. With many thrilling overtime games, there was never a dull moment for this squad. Under the skillful guidance of Coach John Sanchez, many freshmen were able to immediately step up into and excel at key starting positions, such as Freshman Jessica Oblak did in goal. Furthermore, returning players continued to improve as they meshed with the newcomers to form a powerful team. This was especially exciting for seniors Stephanie Bliss and Tara Mackay as they watched their team finally emerge after four years of Varsity play.

Next years only senior, Lib McCaffrey should be able to lead this ever-improving team to even greater strides in 1997. With a year of experience now under their belts, the current freshmen will also enter the season with more skill and confidence in themselves - a sure combination for another successful season.

The determination of this dedicated team was clearly illustrated when they came from behind to defeat Nyack. After trailing 1-0 for most of the game, freshman Jeff Ranaudo tied it up with only four seconds left. In overtime, junior Michael Bonavita came on strong, to score the winning goal.

With numerous rookies who had an immediate impact including two freshman goalkeepers this season, both of whom were recognized as Manhattanville Athletes of the Month in the Fall, this young team can expect to see continued success in years to come.

With the strong leadership of three senior captains, Rebecca Cohen, Eileen Daly and Chandra Taylor, combined with a large, highly skilled freshman class, this year's field hockey team posted one of their best records in recent history.

Opening the season with a victory, the Valiants went on to defeat rival Vassar in a thrilling overtime game and to handily win a tournament at Wells College. With strong competition, the team was still able to improve upon their record from the previous year and to attain a number of their preseason goals. The team, comprised mostly of underclassmen, looked to the leadership of Senior Joanne Harris and Senior setter Marti Trejos to keep them comprised under pressure. Also providing the team with strong leadership was Junior outside hitter Irene Mota. Sophomore Jaime Kriksciun was nationally ranked in aces and hopes to post even better statistics in her two remaining years of play.

With four of the starting six returning for next years season, the Manhattanville Volleyball Team hopes to improve its record once again and to bring a championship back to Manhattanville.

While numerous players have earned Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference Division III NY/NJ Honors, the team has excelled. THE WORLD OUTSIDE OUR CAMPUS WALLS. We love Flik. But let's face it, every day? every night? It's just not happening. So thank God for places like The Cobblestone, David King, and Domino's. Getting off campus is essential every now and then, otherwise we'd all get cabin fever... or campus fever. It's important to get out into our community.

But there is more to getting out into our community than just getting off campus. Many students have jobs and internships off campus, as well as volunteer for charities and organizations all with the hopes of bettering our community.

The idea of community is important on our campus as well. We are all a family, it seems. Manhattanville students have common bonds that tie us together, with faculty and staff who keep a protective eye on us. And together, as a community, we cross the bridge into the community.

To Angela:

You identified your goal, You worked hard and You achieved it.

Congratulations!

We love you and are very proud of you.

Love Mom and Dad

Watch out World, here comes the "animal!"

Love E. & J.

To "Our Janine,"

Tomorrow glows with the promise of joys yet to come,
if anyone deserves the best.... it's you. We're always very proud of you.

Love,
Mom, Dad and Gary

Philip,

Congratulations on a job well done. May your future be filled with success & happiness.

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Linda

To the Senior Class of 1997,

"Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate, our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure. It is our light, not our darkness, that most frightens us. We ask ourselves, who am I to be brilliant, gorgeous, talented, and fabulous? Actually, who are you not to be? You are a child of God. Your playing small doesn't serve the world. There is nothing enlightening about shrinking so that other people won't feel insecure around you. We were born to make manifest the glory of God that is within us. It's not just in some of us; it's in everyone. And as we let our own light shine, we unconsciously give other people permission to do the same. As we are liberated from our own fear, our presence automatically liberates others."

-Nelson Mandela, 1994

Hold fast to your dreams and always be proud of who you are.

Office of Student Activities

"This is not the end, nor the beginning of the end... it's just the beginning" (Winston Churchill)

-Caroline Konzatti, Sophomore Class President

"Seniors- Best Wishes! Please come back and visit often."

-Gillian Greenhill Hannum, Advisor

"Be like a postage stamp. Stick to one thing until you get there. Good Luck Class of 1997."

-Jaqua Curiel, Student Union Representative

Best of luck to the class of '97 and future of Manhattanville. "There's so much left to know. I'm on my way to find out" (Cat Stevens)

-Chandra Taylor, Athletic Representative

"To my fellow seniors: it has been a great four years. Good luck in all you do."

-Gregg Smith, Vice President of Academics

"Congratulations grads! Best Wishes and Good Luck!"

-Lucretia John, Social Science Representative

"Class of '97. . . Could you pass the shampoo (J.P.)?"

-Joe Vece, Public Relations Director

"You hold the future in the palm of your hand. May all your dreams come true!" -Heather Conklin, Spellman Hall President

"Long ago it must be. . . I have a photograph. Preserve your memories. They're all that's left you. (Simon and Garfunkel) We'll miss you class of '97."

-Robby Pande, Junior Class President

"What you are is God's gift to you. What you become is your gift to God. Good Luck, Class of '97."

-Claudia Rojas-Alou, International Student Representative

"Most people live and die with their music still unplayed. They never dare to try." (Mary Kay Ash)

-Lib McCaffrey, Vice President of Student Affairs

"Our time spent was the best. Out to the real world."

-Martin Berroa, Senior Class President

"Go confidently in the direction of your dreams- live the life you have imagined." (Henry David Thoreau)

-Jason Rivera, Student Government President

"As you walk into the tent on May 17th look up, our stars 'll be shining."

-David Jakubiak, Hall Council Chairperson

"Always carry spare keys."

-Alexa Gill, Humanities Representative

To Tammy McGurk

If we could gather up all the smiles, laughs, memories and pride that you've brought us through the years and give them back to you, we would.

Maybe that way you'd understand just what it means to have a daughter like you...and why you're one of the most important things in the world to us.

No one could ever love a daughter and believe in her more deeply than we love and believe in you.

Love,

Mom and Dad

Congratulations to the Graduates of 1997!

Dear Lisa-

Its so hard to believe that twenty-one years have gone by since that special day you were born. Words can never express the pride and joy we feel to have been blessed with a daughter so precious as you. You fulfill every parent's dream, you are the light of our life.

The days and months that have passed into years we will cherish always and forever. We have faith in you, we know you can do whatever you set out to do. You are a responsible, honest and special young woman.

*Now as the time comes for you to graduate from Manhattanville College, we wish you success in all that you do. We wish you love and happiness every day of your life. Remember we will be here for you today, tomorrow and all the tomorrows to come. You can always count on us. All our love always and forever,
Mom & Dad*

Lisa-

Congratulations, you made it. We wish you the best in everything you do. We're proud of you.

Love your sisters-Jamie and Danielle

NYNEX CONSUMER AFFAIRS

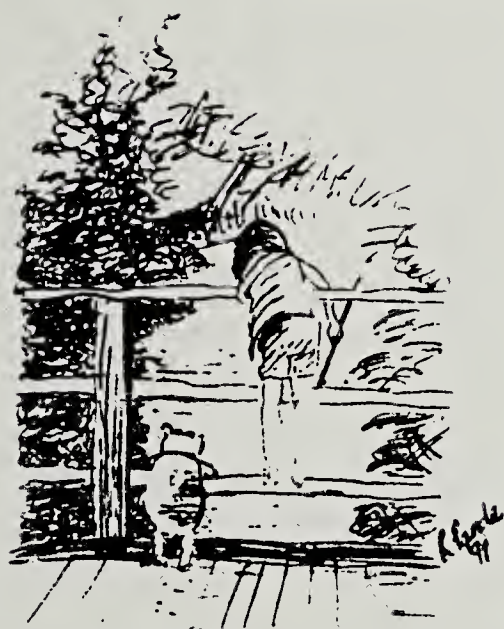

"For those to whom much is given, much is required. And when at some future date the high court of history sits at judgment on each of us, recording whether in our brief span of service we fulfilled our responsibilities to the state, our success or failure, in whatever office we hold, we will be measured by the answers to four questions: First, were we truly men of courage. . . Second, were we truly men of judgment. . . Third, were we truly men of integrity. . . Finally, were we truly men of dedication?

COLOPHON

The 1997 TOWER was published by the Herff Jones Yearbook Company located in Gettysburg, Pa 17325. The total press run for this years edition consisted of 150 copies using an 8 1/2 X 11 page size format. The staffs original cover design was created using a custom embossed/lithographic quarterbound process. The base materials consisted of White Lithox printed with applied color inks HJ# 676 Plum and HJ# 950 Black along with a Leatheflex silkscreen base material Dark Plum #1509 and applied paints HJ# 15 Gold and HJ# 26 Black. A handtooled overgrain was also applied to the silkscreen base material. The endsheets were printed on custom ordered deckled edge DE-2 ivory stock printed in HJ #950 Black ink. The paper stock chosen for the entire book consisted of Meade's triple coated 100 pound Bordeaux stock. Special effects consisted of 4Color Process Photos and Spot Color backgrounds. Percentage screens of black, overprints, reverses, mortices, rule lines and shades texture screens were also utilized throughout. Our Professional Photographer was Harold Orr. Our Publisher's Representative and friend is Dale Alger of Bedford, New York 10506. Our Customer Service Person in Gettysburg is Ms. Barb Hale. We'd like to give special thanks to Ms. Stacy Bailey Robinson, our faculty adviser, for her commitment and dedication in helping make this yearbook special.
